RICHARD WALTON TULLY (Jas. G. Peede, Gen. Mgr.)

Presents for Their First Personal Appearance in Buffalo

Mr. and Mrs. SIDNEY DREW

IN A ROLICKING SPOKEN PLAY

Keep Her Smiling

By John Hunter Booth

Author of "The Masquerader."

WITH AN EXCELLENT CAST DIRECT FROM ASTOR THEATRE, N. Y.

"KEEP HER SMILING."

There is a spirit of laughter even in the title of "Keep Her Smiling," the new comedy in which Richard Walton Tully will present Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew at the Shubert-Teck next week, starting January 6th.

It is a comedy in the truest sense and will re-introduce these splendid entertainers to the people of the theatre of the spoken word in characters which will appeal to their large circle of admirers in the theatre of the screen. But the contact will be closer and the latter will realize the innate artistry with which Mr. and Mrs. Drew has entertained for so long is founded on a firmer foundation than just "appearance."

"Keep Her Smiling" was adapted by John Hunter Booth, the author of "The Masquerader" with which Mr. Tully scored one of the hits of the current season in New York. He found his inspiration for the play in a series of stories by Edgar Franklin which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. The characters played by Mr. and Mrs. Drew are those of a clerk in a corporation and his young wife. The story develops the fact that getting married is one of the greatest spurs to advancement known, for it is necessary to get for your wife a great many things the single man never needed. The situations developed in the course of the story of "Keep Her Smiling" are inherently comical and with these stars as the interpreters their value will be enhanced.

Mr. Tully has selected the company to support Mr. and Mrs. Drew with special care. It will contain many players well known to the public including Lincoln Plumer, Meidel Turner, E. J. Ratcliffe, Daisy Rudd, John Washburn, Page Spencer, Vira Rial and others. Mr. and Mrs. Drew come here direct from New York and are enroute for their Chicago engagement.

"THE MASQUERADER."

Local playgoers are to have one more opportunity to see one of the most notable characterizations which has graced our stage in recent years, when Guy Bates Post, comes to the Shubert-Teck Theatre in "The Masquerader." Since his last appearance here, Richard Walton Tully has presented his star in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and far away Australia. Everywhere the player and the play created a sensation. Mr. Post is now enroute to play his Chicago engagement and this visit to the Shubert-Teck will positively be his last appearance here in this play. At the end of the present season Mr. Tully will send Mr. Post and "The Masquerader" on a tour as far as the Pacific Coast and return, at the conclusion of which Mr. Post will appear in a new play.

Mr. Tully has maintained a high standard which marked the supporting company and the production on its former presentation here. The cast will include Alice John, Lionel Belmore, Adele Richard, Clarence Handyside, Ruby Gordon, Reginald Carrington, Milano Tilden and others.

ROBERT B. MANTELL

Interest in the forthcoming engagement of Robert B. Mantell to the Shubert-Teck soon, will center largely in his new production, in which he scored one of the most pleasing successes of his forty year on the American stage at the Forty-Fourth Street Theatre a few weeks ago. Mr. Mantell last season found "Richelieu" with its stirring spirit of French romance and heroism, so stikingly in the mood of these new heroic times, that he decided to raise it to the featured place in his repertoire. Accordingly during the summer he devised and built a new production, said to be one of the most picturesque settings for a classic play yet seen on the American stage. In addition to "Richelieu," Mr. Mantell is carrying with him on tour this season "King Lear," "Macbeth," "The Merchant of Venice," "Hamlet," "Louis XI," "Othello," "Romeo and Juliet" and "Richard III." His big supporting company is headed by Miss Genevieve Hamper and Fritz Lieber.

"OH, LOOK !"

No musical comedy produced in years has created the wonderful impression of "Oh, Look!", the sixth in the series of New York Princess Theatre successes. This musical hit has for its stars the famous Dolly Sisters, the toasts of Broadway, and the only Harry Fox, peer of the younger comedians. After a long run on Broadway, "Oh, Look!" came to Chicago last summer, where it has been running ever since, its engagement being interrupted by the closing of the theatres. Instead of waiting to resume its Chicago run, the management decided to book the attraction in other cities, and it is announced as a visitor here in the near future. Chicago went wild over the rare qualities of "Oh, Look!", over the unique and graceful talents of its stars, and the merits of its cast and material. It is coming here, complete in every detail, for an engagement which will undoubtedly prove the musical comedy event of the year.

BUFFALO'S MOST POPULAR CAFE

The patronage of Mandarin Cafe every evening speaks well of the excellent service and quality food served at this popular cafe. The Mandarin is the only real oriental cafe in Buffalo, and for those who like oriental dishes served in the real oriental fashion, the Mandarin will be particularly pleasing. American dishes are served too, in just the way that pleases you most.

The management is proud of the perfect service it gives its patrons and invites you to come tonight and test the claim that nowhere can you find service that will excel the Mandarin's. Don't forget about the big Xmas dinner at the Mandarin. Several courses, and everyone will be more tempting and delicious than the other. Bring the whole family, and you had better make reservations now. The Mandarin Cafe is located at 504 Main Street.
